

Understanding

WHEN SOMETHING SMALL LEADS TO SOMETHING BIG

Early Warning Signs of Childhood Cancer

- Does he have unexplained recurring fevers?
- Has his vision changed suddenly? (Blindness, a bulging eyeball, a new squint or white spot in the eye.)
- Is he constantly tired and noticeably pale?
- Is he losing weight or does he suddenly have a loss of appetite?
- Does he have excessive bruises, bleeding or rashes?
- Does he have persistent infections?
- Have you noticed a lump on his head, neck, chest, tummy, groin, limbs, glands or armpits?
- Are his bones, joints, back or legs swollen and painful?

Does she frequently have headaches and early-morning vomiting? _____

Is her head abnormally large? _____

Does she feel nauseated or vomit without nausea? _____

Is she missing her milestones or has she regressed? _____

Has her behaviour changed? _____

Has her balance or way of walking changed? _____

Does she walk awkwardly or stumble often? _____

Has she sustained a fractured bone with very little force / trauma? _____

Seek medical help for any persistent symptoms, early detection SAVES lives...

NPC 2012/103028/08

Become a Cupcake Angel...

The Sweetest Way
TO SAVE A LIFE

